

Sonya L Sigler

Sonya combines her business strategy consulting and her executive leadership coaching to create real-world game plans that are practical and accomplishable for start-ups and companies looking to grow quickly or reinvent themselves. Her extensive experience as an operations and legal executive ranges from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies and she has been an in-house IP and Corporate lawyer for over 25 years.

Sonya is in the confidence building business and loves to help highly motivated women (and enlightened, progressive men) who feel stuck or frustrated in their professional lives. She inspires them to own their story and achievements and to move to the next level. Sonya is a staunch supporter and advocate for women and girls in technology and has founded or been on the board of a women's group since she began her career.

Sonya is the best-selling author of WELCOME to the Next Level: 3 Secrets to Become Unstuck, Take Action, and Rise Higher in Your Career, and What's Next for My Career? Your Guide to Deciding to Leave Your Stable Job to Follow Your Passion. She is also the founder and CEO of PractiGal and has been an IP and corporate lawyer for over 25 years.

She is known as a high-energy and inspiring speaker and workshop facilitator for corporate teams and women's networks. Her speaking and workshop events are designed to inspire her audiences into taking action to reach their goals and make their dreams come true. In her private coaching and consulting work, Sonya works with female founders, executives, entrepreneurs, and lawyers to provide them with the tools and connections they need to succeed. Her most popular workshops are Authentic Personal Branding, Networking with a Purpose, and Working from Home Successfully. She and her husband live in Vancouver, WA.

Tatiana Enhorning

Tatiana is a licensed professional financial advisor, born and raised in Toronto. With nearly ten years of experience in the finance industry, she has worked for several of North America's top-tier financial institutions on both the private client and institutional sides of the business in Toronto and Vancouver. Tatiana has always believed in the power of financial freedom and has made it her mission to help investors achieve this through objective, reliable, long-term counsel which is what spurred her to become an advisor at Raymond James. She is committed to helping investors and their families to clarify, protect and feel confident about their financial futures by choosing to fully embrace the standard of fiduciary duty, and fully understanding the clients' life goals. This goals-based approach to wealth management helps her clients to make more informed decisions and feel empowered and self-assured about their wealth. She works along-side clients as their advocate to build and stay invested in tailored, comprehensive plans that are rooted in a foundational relationship of transparency and trust, so that clients can feel good about their financial wellness.

Having graduated from the University of Western Ontario with the Scholarship of Distinction and a degree in Psychology, Tatiana's background helps her bring a uniquely personal and insightful perspective to advising her clients on how to reach their individual goals.

In her spare time, Tatiana enjoys travelling to the world's most far-flung destinations to explore different cultures and cuisine. So far she has made it to over 30 countries throughout five continents. She loves to scuba dive, surf, ski, dance, play tennis, golf, and was a competitive gymnast for over a decade. Tatiana volunteers as a Mentor for women at Brave Beginnings, helping them rebuild their lives after abuse. She has always been an active patron of the arts, as her Swedish heritage comes from a long line of painters.
